President's Podium

Brothers,

With a week off from hurling (bye week), I have recovered enough to write this month's podium. I am definitely getting too old for this sport!

Our spring events have begun to wind down, so there is not as much to report on this month. Our biggest event was the 4th Annual Picnic at the Pitch on May 5th. It was a beautifully clear day, but we did manage to schedule it on the hottest Saturday of the year so far. The AOH tent served up close to 200 hot dogs and 400 beverages of one sort or another. Thanks to your brothers who volunteered in the tent: Sean Carmody, Connor Adams, Bill Burns, Jason Barnett, Michael O'Connell and Dave Holmes. Thanks also to Carrie Kinealy who worked all day.

The hurlers were especially grateful for all the bottled water we provided as the 95 degree heat and lack of breeze took their toll on the players. I can testify to that as my energy was severely sapped. Of course, it also didn't help that I was nursing a cracked rib from the previous week and had difficulty breathing (did I mention that I am too old for this?). For the first time, my team WON on a Picnic at the Pitch day...and, this year, it was your team, too! The AOH Fianna have now run off a 4-game winning streak after starting 0-3. Just a few games remain to make the playoffs, so come out and support the cause. You can check the schedule at www.stlqac.com.

The official Fianna t-shirts have arrived and have been selling rapidly. They are green long-sleeved shirts that feature the logo on the front and text on the back. We are sold out of Mediums and are almost out of XXL. So bring your $20 and get your XL and L before we run out. I will bring our remaining stock to the June meeting.

In May, the division added 1 new member: Mike Harrigan. Mike plays for your AOH Fianna, so we now have 4 division members who are on our hurling team. That brings our current total to 160 members. Remember, if you can't make the meetings, and want your picture on the site with the rest of the division, please e-mail a digital photo to Publicity Chairman/Webmaster Bill Burns (webmasteraoh@stlhibernians.com).

Is mise le meas,

Tim Kinealy
President
AOH – Fr. Tim Dempsey – Div. 1

Your editor has missed the last two division meetings and will need to catch up on the new members photos.
