

2022 Saint Patrick's Day Dogtown

2022 Saint Patrick's Day for Accessible for Everyone in Dogtown

St. Louis – Dogtown United, heading up the Dogtown Irish Festival on March 17, recognizes the importance of providing access to all members of the St. Louis community, including those with accessibility needs.

“We are committed to ensuring equal access to the annual Saint Patrick’s Day celebration, both the Hibernian Saint Patrick’s Day Parade and the Irish Festival that follows,” commented Festival organizer Colin O’Brien.

Among the services provided will be prime Accessibility Viewing Area along the parade route on Tamm Avenue and Oakland (northeast corner), an ADA toilet near the viewing area, as well as sign language interpreters at both festival stages. A limited number of parking spots will be reserved on Oakland Avenue, just east of Graham. This area is accessed by going west down Oakland from Hampton. ADA parking tags are required. Since space is limited, first-come, first-serve, so we suggest arriving by 9:00 a.m.

ADA toilets will be available at the following locations.

- Oakland @ Tamm (one on both sides of Tamm)
- Pat Connolly Tavern tent area
- Clayton @ Tamm (one on both sides of Tamm)
- Seamus McDaniel's on Victoria at Tamm
- Tamm at West Park (on both sides of Tamm)
- St. James the Greater Parking Lot
- Tamm and Lloyd (both sides of the street)

- Tamm near Manchester (both sides of the street)
